

Affiliate Review Service

More Readers | More Reviews | More Feedback

A well-crafted review that informs and engages readers instills confidence in potential readers and lends credibility to your work.

In today's market, you need a lot of book reviews to give potential readers that much-needed social proof that your book is worth their time and money.

With our Affiliate Review Service, you can get as many reviews as you need to set your book up for success.

“Online reviews are the second most-trusted source when someone is buying a product.” – YouGov Report

We ensure your book is reviewed by readers in your target audience to ensure you get an unbiased review from someone who enjoys books like yours.

“97% of online shoppers say reviews influence their buying decisions” – MarketWatch

All of our Affiliated Reviewers are real readers who have a passion for books.

“92% of consumers will hesitate to buy something if it has no customer reviews at all.” – Fan & Fuel Digital Marketing Group

The reviews will be posted by reviewers on their Amazon, Barnes & Noble and Goodreads accounts.

“61% of U.S. online shoppers said the quantity of reviews was important to them.” – Statista Research Department

6 Reasons Why You Need Customer Reviews

1

Social Proof

Potential readers are more likely to buy your book if they see that others have read and enjoyed it.

2

Visibility

Reviews improve visibility on Google, Facebook, and sites that use algorithms to decide what to show people.

3

Trustworthy

A collection of informative and positive reviews gives readers confidence that your book is worth their time.

4

Decision Making

Book reviews are a critical step in the purchasing process as they let readers know your book is worth their money.

5

Feedback

Reviews are an excellent way for you, as an author, to see what real readers think about your book.

6

Sales

All this comes together to increase book sales. Getting customer reviews is a critical step in selling your books.
